Boss -- submitting for ASAC concurrence/closure. Note this is the assessment in which yielded new development from CHS/NICS that NICS no longer processes self-surrender paperwork prohibiting a person from obtaining a firearm. This has been documented within assessment.

Good morning [redacted]

Attached is the NICS Form for relinquishing rights to purchase a firearm.

Also, in the interview, I would like to ask if [redacted] is aware of other people who wish to do harm to citizens and to see if he is willing to inform authorities of bad actors in the future.

b7C -3

If you'll allow it, I'd like to interview [redacted] this week. Let me know what you think and how we can proceed.

Thanks,

Here is the update on [redacted]

[redacted]

b6 -2,3
b7C -2,3

[redacted] I haven't touched base directly with [redacted] yet, because of his (and my) schedule. I will do so in the next day or so, and I will talk to him about the interview and signing a form to relinquish his right to purchase firearms. Before doing so, I'd like a little clarification on these two items: For the interview - who would that be with? What would be the purpose and/or content of the interview? For the form relinquishing right to purchase firearms - What would be the time frame for that prohibition? Is there a mechanism for reviewing that at a later date? If you could send me the form in advance, that would help me in discussions with [redacted]

b6 -2,3
b7C -2,3

Please let me know.

Thanks [redacted]

Good morning [redacted]

I was hoping to get an update on [redacted]

Is he still receiving care?

Do you know his expected release date?

Will his Mental Care continue?

Will you allow an interview after his release?

Would you oppose [redacted] signing a form to voluntarily relinquish his right to purchase firearms?
